

University of Copenhagen

Visit to Tokai University
20 June, 2022

UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN

University of Copenhagen - Denmark

Rankings:

Europe: 6th World: 26th
Academic Ranking of World Universities
Shanghai, 2019

Europe: 26nd World: 81th
QS World University Rankings, 2019

Europe: 4th World: 36th
Leiden Ranking (publications), 2019

Europe: 43rd World:
116nd
Times Higher Education - THE, 2019

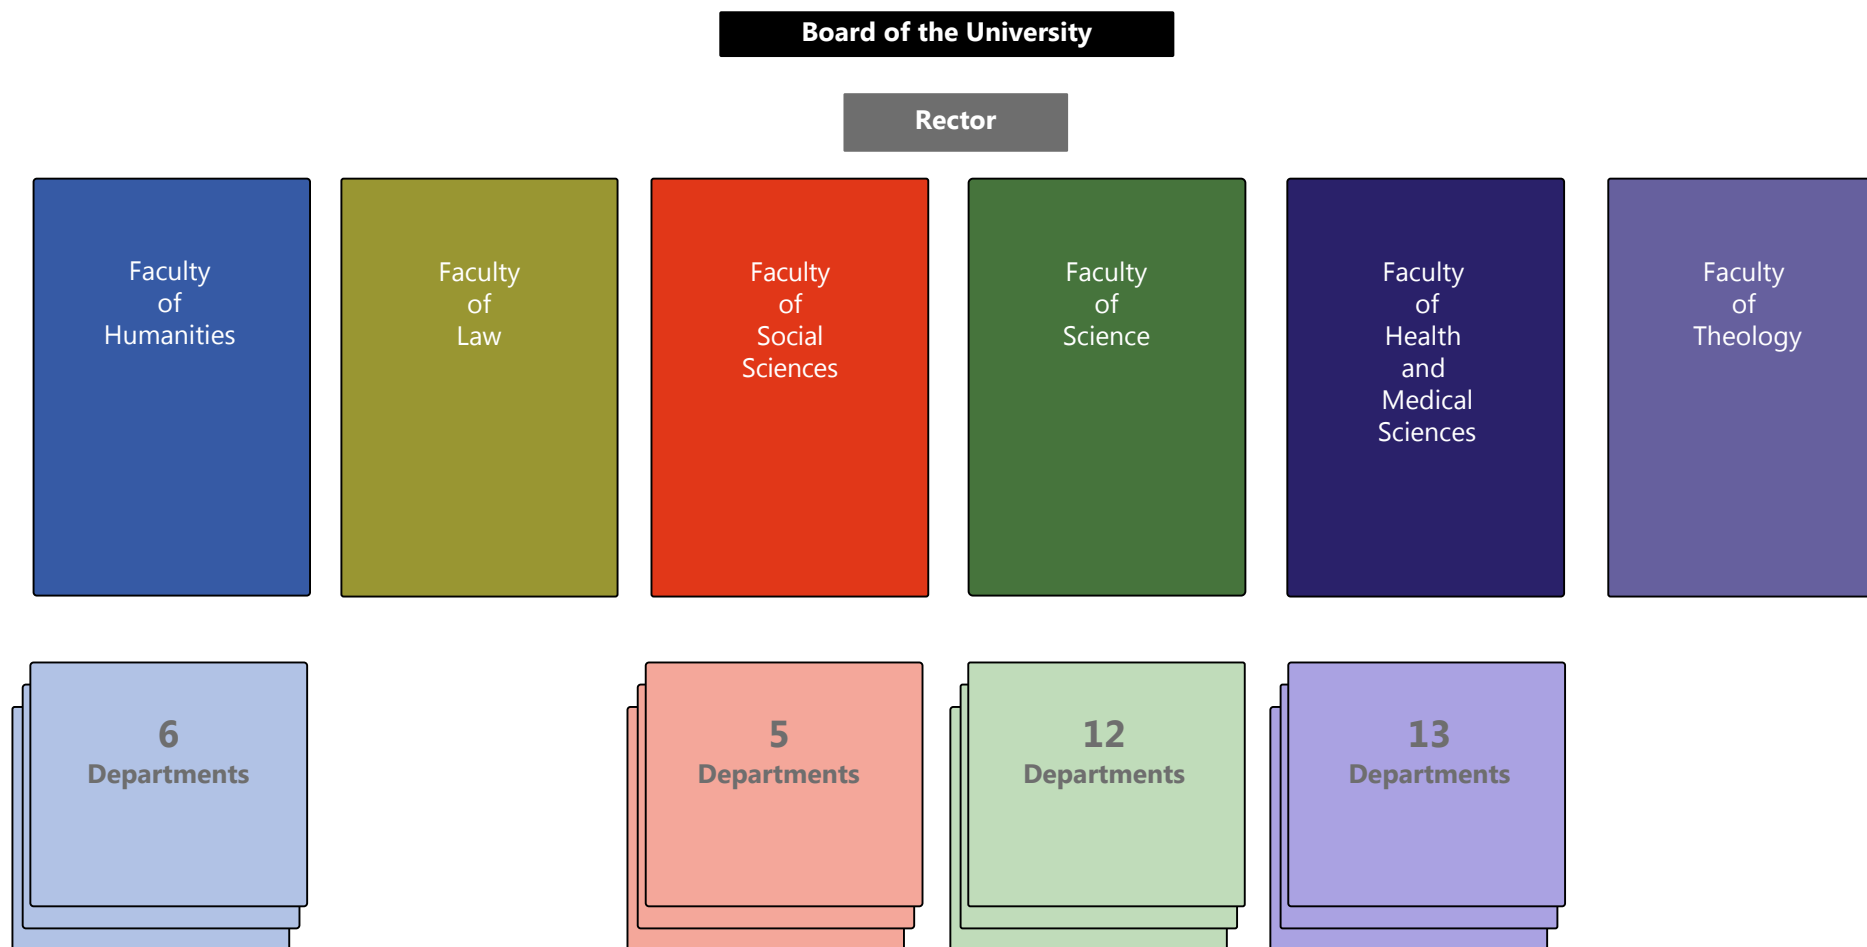

UCPH – a European university in a global knowledge community

International Ambitions

- Fostering global networking opportunities for students and staff
- *Fostering options for students and staff to help solve global challenges
- Consolidating UCPH' position as a globally oriented research-intensive university*

UCPH - a comprehensive university

Copenhagen – a modern, green and clean city in Europe

Four campuses in central Copenhagen

City Campus

North Campus

Frederiksberg Campus

South Campus

International education at UCPH

60% postdocs are international

33 % PhD's are international

2,500 outbound exchange students

100+ exchange agreements worldwide

4,000
international degreeseeking students

36% of all Academic staff are international

1,700
international exchange
students

45% of UCPH's master's programmes are taught in english

200
Erasmus partners

More than 14 mil. in stipends

Structure of programmes: 3 years+2 years+3 years

Faculty of Humanities at South Campus

Together with The Faculty of Law and The Faculty of Theology, The Faculty of Humanities is based in the modern South Campus.

Faculty of Humanities at South Campus

The campus is close to central Copenhagen but also very close to nature and with easy access by metro or by bike.

Faculty of Humanities – Educational facts and figures

Student Body: 9.000 students
(BA + MA/MSc)

Programmes:

- 34 Bachelor degree programmes
- 48 Master's programmes (4 English taught)

Faculty of Humanities – Educational facts and figures

Outbound students:

600 per year

Inbound students:

600 per year

Summer courses:

Each summer (July/August) app.
4-7 International summer courses

Humanities – Departments

- Department of English Germanic and Romance Studies:
 - English, German, Italian, French, Portuguese and Brazilian and Spanish
- Department of Communication
 - Philosophy, Communication and IT, Education, Film and Media, Rhetoric, Cognition and Communication and Information Science
- Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies
 - Asia Studies (Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Modern India), Middle Eastern Language and Society (Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, Turkish), East European Studies (Russian, Polish, Balkan), Religion, Greenlandic and arctic, Assyriology, Egyptology, Near Eastern Archaeology and American Indian Languages and Culture

Humanities – Departments

- Department of Nordic Studies and Linguistics
 - Danish, Linguistics, IT & Cognition, Psychology of Language and Audiologopedics
- Department of Arts and Cultural Studies
 - Art History, Musicology, Literature, Modern Culture, Visual Culture, Theatre and Performance Studies,
- Saxo Institute
 - Applied Cultural Analysis, European Ethnology, Pre-historic Archaeology, Greek, Latin, History, Classical Archaeology and Advanced Migration Studies

Humanities: International corporation

Erasmus agreements:

100 (+30 University wide)

Erasmus ICM agreements:

7 (+2-3 University wide)

Bilateral exchange agreements:

19 (+110 University wide)

Requirements for inbound students to UCPH

- Required time of studies before exchange to UCPH
 - Minimum one year (60 ECTS) of university studies (BA/Undergraduate)
- Language requirements
 - Proof of English proficiency is only required if applying to one or more of the following subjects: English/American Language and Culture, Film & Media Studies, Information Science, Philosophy and Political Science
- Course restrictions
 - All courses at the University of Copenhagen can be applied for, however acceptance depends on fulfilling the academic prerequisites. Most English taught courses at the Faculty of Humanities are offered as electives (meaning no required prerequisites)

Academic Calendar

Autumn semester: September – January

Spring semester: February – June

ECTS-credit based educational system

30 ECTS credits per semester

- Min. requirement for international exchange students 22.5 ECTS credits per semester.
- Max. requirement for international exchange students 35 ECTS credits per semester (excl. the pre-semester course)

Courses designed for exchange students

- Pre-semester course (August and January) 'History of Copenhagen with Danish Language
 - Danish Culture Courses (semester courses) – a range of different courses with topics related to Denmark and Scandinavia
 - Academic English Courses (semester courses)
- + a broad variety of academic courses by field of study offered in English

Normal credit load per semester course: 7,5 ECTS or 15 ECTS

Exams

Exam Periods

Winter exams: December – January

Summer exams: May-June

Type of Exams

- Depends on the individual course

Offers for international exchange students

- Housing
 - All exchange students are given an offer of accommodation by the University of Copenhagen Housing Foundation

Orientation days

- Two days of introduction to international students with a strong focus on social and cultural integration

Buddy Programme

The Humanities International Student Society:

- Peer to peer run society with focus on mentoring international exchange students

The Student Society of Copenhagen 'Stuenterhuset'

- Placed centrally in old Copenhagen all students and especially internationals will find daily activities and mentor programmes available for them.

Links and resources

University of Copenhagen: www.studies.ku.dk

Faculty of Humanities: www.humanities.ku.dk/education

Buddy programme: www.hintsociety.dk

Studerterhuset (Student Society): www.studerterhuset.com/en/

Housing Foundation: www.housingfoundation.dk

Visit Denmark: <https://www.visitdenmark.com/>

Visit Copenhagen: <https://www.visitcopenhagen.com/>

Thank you for your time!