Medical insurance
Are exchange students required to purchase a compulsory medical insurance plan?	No matter whether the exchange students has already bought insurance in home country or not, Ministry of Education of P. R. China requires that foreign students buy Compulsory Health Insurance at host university in China since 2008.
If yes, please provide details.	The cost is 400 RMB for one semester (4 Months). (Introduction Link: http://en.lxbx.net/#slide1) Refer to: Plan Package - 800 for International students)
Is purchase of medical insurance recommended?	Purchase of medical insurance or accident insurance in home country as a supplement to Compulsory Medical Insurance is also recommended
Visa Requirements
Are exchange students required to obtain a student visa?	Yes. Chinese Student Visa type: X1 or X2. X1 visa – two semester exchange X2 visa – one semester exchange (X2 holders are able to apply for an extra enter chance during the exchange)
If yes, what are the procedures?	Refer to visa requirements on local consulates' websites.
Is there any physical examination needed?	Students must do physical examination after enrollment at Fudan if they stay in mainland China for more than 180 days. Physical exam costs RMB660 yuan and Resident Permit costs RMB400 yuan. To have a physical examination after enrollment at Fudan is recommended because the verification of home physical examination record will probably fail due to different physical examination system.
Are exchange students allowed to do off-campus internship?	Yes, General Advanced and Senior Advanced students can do off-campus internship, but need to apply for internship notation. Chinese language students are not allowed to do off-campus internship.
